RESOLUTIONS. The Board of Trustees of The Put-am Savings Bank have unammously iopted the following minute: The Chairman having announced the death of CHESTER ELISHA CHILD, chief of the Bank, on Thursday morning, May 10th, the Board of Trustees wish upon their records to make acknowledgment of his unfailing interest in the welfare of the Bank and to express their sense of indebtedness and their appreciation.

Born in North Weodstock Aug. 1st, 1872, Mr. Child after graduation from Putnam High School entered the service of The First National Bank, where he remained nine years. Desiring an outdoor life, he engaged in lumbering operations with such success that the child Lumber Corporation was formed, of which he was President and Treasurer. His prominence in the trade was recognized when he served for three years as first President of the Southern New England Lumber Manufacturers as first President of the Southern New England Lumber Manufacturers Association. In the reorganization of this Bank he was elected President Aug. 17th. 1814, and his accession to that office inspired new confidence in the Bank. He never acust nor held public office, although his civic activities were manifold and his time and means always generously bestowed. His work as chairman of the building committee of the Putnam Trade School will always be remembered as indicative of his devotion to give ideals. Mr. Child was of a strong character. His chief pleasures were found in the home circle and in his church. As President of the Windham County Sunday School Association in his last left his impress not only upon the last le
